INFORMATION PURSUANT ITALIAN LEGISLATIVE DECREE 196/2003

Pursuant to art. 13 of Italian Legislative Decree n° 196/2003 and in relation to the data concerning the organization (company name; head office address and any branch offices; name and personal information of the legal representatives; telephone numbers; tax code and VAT number; bank details; other information related to its business activities) directly provided by it to RINA and/or acquired by RINA during its contractual or precontractual relations (hereinafter known as DATA or PERSONAL DATA), the Organization takes note of the following:

1. The PERSONAL DATA will be processed in order to:
  - a) make offers and perform other activities required to stipulate contracts;
  - b) allow RINA to fulfil its accounting and fiscal obligations, customer administration, management and performance of RINA product supply contracts, management of payments and any claims, fulfilment of all legal requirements and obligations towards accreditation bodies, insertion of the organization in periodic RINA publications;
  - c) provide commercial information about and promote RINA services.
2. As regards the above aims, the PERSONAL DATA may be processed either manually or through the use of computers, electronic or otherwise automated means, and may consist, alternatively or jointly, in the recording, storage, organization, processing, selection, comparison, extraction, transmission, deletion and destruction of the said data;
3. With regard to the DATA, express consent to processing, circulation and communication to the addressees mentioned in the following point 9) is not necessary or mandatory, on condition that it is done for the purposes specified in letters a) and b) of point 1), this being the consent presumed by law.
4. As regards processing the DATA for the purposes stipulated in letter c) of point 1), the Organization voluntary express consent is required to allow RINA to contact it for commercial purposes, by means of automated call systems or electronic methods, such as e-mail, telefax, sms and mms messages, and the like.
5. In this respect it should be noted that the Organization is not required to give consent for the activities referred to in letter c) of point 1) and in the absence of such consent by the organization, RINA may not perform these activities.
6. RINA is the DATA Holder. Details of the individuals responsible for data processing will be provided upon request to the head office of RINA.
7. The DATA may be communicated for similar processing to other companies in the group to which, as established in art. 2359 of the Italian Civil Code, RINA belongs.
8. The DATA may be communicated, inside or outside the European Union, to the following categories of subjects: couriers/forwarding agents, banking institutions and nonbanking financial brokers; postal administrations – postel service; agents, professional studios and consulting firms for the performance of advisory services in accounting and tax matters, claims management and credit collection; consultants and firms appointed to service the company's information system; auditing firms; public administrations and other organisations to whom RINA must communicate the data for legal or contractual reasons (CISQ, IACS, ACCREDIA, etc). The subjects belonging to the above categories to which the DATA may be communicated will use such DATA as holders, with the exception of the subjects responsible for processing.
9. The DATA will be communicated to the people responsible and to authorized individuals who need to use it in order to perform the tasks and functions assigned to them.
10. The DATA may be circulated by means of publication in RINA periodicals (registers, directories, newsletters, etc.) or insertion in RINA's website.
11. The law gives the Organization a number of rights (Article 7 of Italian Legislative Decree n° 196/2003), including the right to oppose data processing for legitimate reasons, to obtain confirmation from the holder of the existence or not of its DATA and to receive such DATA in an intelligible form; the right to know the source of the data as well as the purposes for which it is processed; the right to obtain cancellation, conversion into anonymous form, blocking for data processed in breach of current law, or certification, updating and, if interested, integration of the said data.
